THE WEATHER

For Columbia and vicinity: Generally fair tonight and Tuesday; moderate temperature.

For Missouri: Fair northeast, partly cloudy southwest portions tonight and Tuesday; not much change in temperature.

Weather Conditions.

Cool weather is associated with high pressure waves in summer and cold weather in winter. A high pressure wave covers the greater part of the United States this morning, and the resulting weather is more like the early autumn than midsummer type.

Showers, varying in amounts from light to moderate, fell in most of the Missouri and Mississippi drainage areas, across Tennessee and to the Atlantic and thence northward along the coast to New England.

Except a tendency to storm development in the far Southwest, the country is free from atmospheric disturbances.

In Columbia generally fair weather with moderate temperature will prevail the next two or three days.

Local Data.

The highest temperature in Columbia yesterday was 72, and the lowest last night was 56; precipitation, .01; relative humidity 2 p. m. yesterday, 55 per cent.
A year ago yesterday the highest temperature was 78, and the lowest 61; precipitation, .35.

The Almanac.

Sun rose today, 4:42 a. m. Sun sets, 7:55 p. m.
Moon sets, 1:42 a. m.

COLUMBIANS GO ON FISHING TRIP

Dean Mumford Admits He Expects to Borrow Some Hay Scales.

Dean F. B. Mumford of the College of Agriculture, in company with the Rev. C. C. Grimes, Dr. H. I. Bragg and they will spend two weeks fishing.

They are going on the train to Versailles, where they will join their driver and continue their trip by wagon road.

Dean Mumford refused to take scales along with which to weigh the fish. He was sure they could borrow hay scales from the farmers.

Dr. J. C. Whitten is acting dean in Dean Mumford's absence. game to his credit this year. The

CELEBRATES 75th ANNIVERSARY

Fordham University, Founded in 1841, Holds Diamond Jubilee.

By United Press.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Diamond Jubilee of Fordham University—the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of this Catholic institution—will be celebrated during the week beginning today.

Originally known as St. John's College, Fordham was formally opened by Bishop Hughes in June 1841. The Rev. John McCloskey, who later became the first American cardinal, was the first president, and associated with him were several men who attained distinction.

The celebration will be participated in by church dignitaries from all parts of the country and by distinguished men of all walks of life and all religions. Although primarily a Catholic college, Fordham is not sectarian, and many distinguished men of other religions have been graduated there.

In connection with the diamond jubilee, the Fordham University Alumni Association is raising a fund of $75,- 000 intended still further to make known the merits of the place. Cardinal Farley, himself a graduate, is chairman.

BROWNS DROP GAME
TO PARIS TEAM, 4-2

Threlkeld Pitches Invincible Ball—George Bryant Is Also in Form.

TAYLOR GETS 3 HITS

Centralia and Higbee Are Defeated—Moberly Here
Next Sunday.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

Paris 4, Columbia 2.
Centralia 2, Mexico 1.
Moberly 7, Higbee 4.

The Columbia Browns failed to keep up their winning streak of one game and were defeated by the Paris nine yesterday afternoon at Paris, 4 to 2.

The Browns put up a good game but they just couldn't get started, failing to produce any unusually large amount of hits and failing to get these when they were needed most.
George Taylor, former Tiger and now part owner of the Browns, set a good example for his teammates and employed by getting three hits—one a two-bagger—out of three times at bat.
But he was the only Brownie who hit consistently.

Threlkeld, pitching for Paris, was in good form, and the Browns could do little with his delivery. He struck out twelve men and kept his hits well selected. Bryant also pitched a good game, but he did not keep his hits so well scattered, nor could stop the Paris batters in the critical places.

Next Sunday the Browns will play Moberly here, and the owner-players, Bryant and Taylor, promise the fans that the Browns will start their winning streak then and eventually climb to the top of the league.

Faction Made Angry by T. R.'s Refusal.

By United Press.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Chairman Mc-Combs of the Democratic National Committee this afternoon is said to have prepared a resolution to the Constitution of the United States barring Federal judges from entering other offices.

This is as a result of the Hughes nomination.

It was learned this afternoon that an effort will be made to adopt the Progressives, who are "fired" on account of Roosevelt's refusal to accept the party nomination. Planks are to be inserted in the Democratic platform favorable to the Bull Moose.
